Senior ONLY Course. UVU prerequisites required BEFORE registration is allowed

+ AP exam scores must be submitted from College Board and recorded at UVU prior to course registration. ACT scores may be submitted on the high school transcript. College deadlines apply.

($)The Regent and/or Opportunity Scholarship approved for 2022 graduates only

Live Interactive (Distance Education) courses run on the UVU schedule & calendar. Students taking DE courses block out high school odd/even class time to participate. Students must be a high school 3.0 Junior or Senior or a high school 3.5 Sophomore and admitted to UVU to enroll in these college courses.

UVU ADMISSION AND COURSE ENROLLMENT OPENS Nov. 3, 2021

- Students MUST meet with Miss Boy in the Timpview Media Center BEFORE Christmas break for class scheduling and UVU course registration instructions
- Students must be admitted UVU students and enrolled in DE college courses BEFORE the first day of UVU Spring classes

Admission to UVU will cost a one -time $35 non-refundable fee paid to the university through the high school Concurrent Enrollment program. Log on to www.uvu.edu/concurrent to get started by following 1. Admission, Get admitted to UVU (If you currently participate in UVU concurrent enrollment or have done so in the past this step has been done. Skip to 2. Registration Process)

After completing UVU admission students are assigned a UVU ID number. This number is used to sign in to the MyUVU student portal for course registration. Students participating in a DE course pay low tuition of $5 per credit hour through MyUVU and are responsible to buy their own textbooks, eBooks, class supplies etc. In addition to UVU tuition there is a $10 class fee to be paid at the THS Financial Office each semester a student participates in this program.
